

Thank you!

We're happy you chose Red Pennant Sailing Apparel and we want you to be happy too, so before you really wear it please make sure it fits you properly in every way.

Shorts & Capri Pants

The shorts and Capri pants are generous in size and meant to be worn slightly baggy with the waist band sitting just below the belly button. You can wear them fitted if you prefer but chances are the pads won't install or fit right.

Underwear

Unfortunately, we cannot accept returns on underwear due to hygienic concerns.

Shoes

Follow the size charts. Some of our shoes are available in extra widths.

In General

All returns must be in the original packaging with the tags still attached. Please allow approximately two weeks for your return to be processed. Include a copy of your receipt.

Shipping

Return shipping is at your own risk. We suggest you use a shipping method you can track. On exchanges of near or equal value we will pay for the shipment back to you.
